

ARMED SENTRIES PATROL STREETS

Martial Law Has Been Declared in Cyclone Stricken Fergus Falls.

FORTY-FOUR ARE DEAD

Fifteen Persons Are Missing and the Injured Number 167—Relief Agencies Furnish Temporary Shelter for 1,500 Homeless.

Fergus Falls, Minn., June 24.—Cyclone swept Fergus Falls, with its 44 dead, 15 missing and 167 injured, is under martial law.

Armed sentries, with orders to shoot any persons who attempted looting, paced back and forth beside the water-soaked ruins of what had been the Grand hotel, stores and business blocks, churches and the city's most attractive homes. Guards were stationed at every entrance to the town to keep out the curious and those who might come to rob. State, military and city officials are co-operating to prevent looting in the devastated area.

Frantic Search for Victims.

Minnesota National Guard troops searched frantically in the ruins for victims of the storm, in the hope that some of those buried in the debris might still be alive, while the townspeople assisted mechanically, or stood about in dazed, apathetic groups.

They, too, had delved in those ruins, frantically, in the rain and wind, they were trying vainly to realize the horror of it all. They were too dazed to speak—all save those whose friends or relatives were missing. Most of them talked very little. Apparently they could not remember how the storm came, or what it was like. Every hour or so a low groan broke from the crowd, and white-faced men and women hurried up to the soldiers. Another body had been found.

Bodies Taken from Lake.

Soldiers and civilians searched for the dead in the nearby lakes. On the west shore of Lake Alice many prominent citizens had beautiful summer homes. Most of these were demolished when the storm swooped down over the lake after having cut its path through the town. The bodies of several of the householders were recovered from the lake. Many more are believed to be in the water. Relief agencies, from Minneapolis and St. Paul and from nearby towns, had been active, with the result that temporary shelter was provided for the 1,500 homeless citizens. Air lights had been strung up on temporary poles to take the place of the wrecked lighting system.

Burnquist Calls for Funds.

Civilian committees, appointed at a mass meeting under the leadership of Governor Burnquist, were hard at work with the result that much had been accomplished. A proclamation issued by the governor calling on all citizens of Minnesota to raise funds for relief work heartened the citizens. Mayor Hodgson of St. Paul, E. M. McMahon of the St. Paul Association, and other leaders in the relief work announced that Minnesota would be called on to contribute $500,000 for reconstruction work.

Minneapolis, June 24.—With the gradual restoration of wire service, reports began to reach the Twin Cities from towns and country communities throughout Northwestern Minnesota and the Dakotas of damage done by the tornado which devastated Fergus Falls Sunday night and killed nearly 50 persons.

The storm damaged crops in the western part of Minnesota and in North Dakota, swelled the Minnesota river to a flood, tore down farm buildings, and washed out wagon roads in six counties. Wheaton, Dumont, Ortonville, Montevideo, Appleton, Detroit, Brainerd, Alexandria, Milbank, and Clinton are among the towns that have reported damage from the storm.

TEXT OF GERMAN NOTE

Foreign Minister Writes Acceptance of Peace Terms.

Teutons Yielding to Superior Force, Declare They Are Ready to Sign Conditions.

Paris, June 24.—In declaring its intention to accept the peace terms the government of the German republic has sent the following note to Premier Clemenceau, president of the Peace conference, through Dr. Haniel von Haimhausen.

The minister of foreign affairs has instructed me to communicate to your excellency the following message:

It appears to the government of the German republic in consternation of the action of the Allied and associated governments, that the governments have decided to wrest from Germany by force acceptance of the peace conditions, even those, which, without presenting any material significance aim at divesting the German people of their honor.

"No act of violence can touch the honor of the German people after frightful suffering in these last years and they have no means of defending themselves by external action.

"Yielding to superior force, and without renouncing in the meantime its own view of the peace condition, the government of the German republic declares that it is ready to accept and sign the peace conditions imposed.

"Please accept, Mr. President, assurances of my high consideration. (Signed) VON HAIMHAUSEN."

Treaty Will Be Signed Friday or Saturday

(By Fred S. Ferguson, United Press Staff Correspondent)

Paris, June 24.—The formal signing of the peace treaty will take place Friday or Saturday at Versailles, it was indicated in official circles today. Secretary Dastasta, of the peace conference suggested to Herr Von Leisner that the ceremony take place Thursday, but it was later said it might be deferred until Friday. It was officially announced at Versailles this afternoon that Hermann Mueller, the new German foreign minister, has been appointed president of the new German peace delegation, and that he would probably sign the treaty alone. However he will be accompanied to Versailles by a delegation of about twenty.

President Wilson was in conference with the American delegation for an hour and a half at midday. They also conferred last night regarding plans for his turning over his work to other members of the delegation. There was some discussion of the sinking of the German fleet at Scapa Flow, but no decision was reached pending the receipt of the official report.

As the president and other American representatives left the hotel, they were given a great ovation by crowds celebrating peace.

Celebrations over Germany's acceptance of the terms were held throughout the city, assuming the proportions of the armistice signing demonstrations. Premier Clemenceau directed the firing of the first cannon announcing Germany's acceptance. He remarked: "I have been waiting forty years for this."

Assembly Voted to Accept Peace Without Reserve

BY CARL D. GROAT, (United Press Staff Correspondent)

Weimar, June 24.—Rumors were circulated today that the Bauer cabinet had been overturned. These proved untrue. The national assembly late Monday voted overwhelmingly in favor of signing the peace treaty after Chancellor Bauer had announced the cabinet's intention to accept the terms without reserve. The session resembled a funeral more than anything else.

FRANCE AND U. S. ADJUST CLAIMS

Joint Commission Settles All Controversies Regarding War Materials.

TERMS ARE WITHHELD

Secretary Baker Announces Conditions Will Not Be Made Public Until Approved by French Government.

Washington, June 24.—Secretary of War Baker announced that claims between the United States and France for war material have been settled by commissions representing the two nations and are awaiting the formal approval of the French government.

John Ray of Minneapolis, who managed the campaign which resulted in the election of Walter Newton to congress, is a member of the American commission which has been considering these claims.

Terms of the agreement will not be made public until the French government has signed its approval. The French commissioners handling the claims were unanimous in their approval, Secretary Baker said.

In addition to these claims, there is a mass of war material in France which it will not pay this country to bring back. Secretary Baker is making an effort to sell those articles, and it is understood they will be sold, bringing back to the United States treasury approximately a billion dollars. It is presumed there will be great bargains in these for the French. There have been objections in France to the sale of these articles, on the ground that it would ruin their business, just as there has been similar objection in this country, but the sale will be accomplished. Mr. Ray is expected home, with the rest of the commission, now that matters are adjusted.

PUBLIC SEEMS DAZED

German People Show Little Interest in Peace Terms.

Somber Throng Listens to Arguments of Political Leaders for and Against Acceptance.

Weimar, June 24.—The throng that jammed the national assembly chamber to the doors to hear the arguments of the political leaders and learn the vote of the peoples' representatives on the question of signing the peace terms was a somber one.

The crowd did not seem to mind the heat, although throughout the four-hour session it displayed a remarkable degree of apathy, receiving each speech and even the announcement of the overwhelming vote in favor of signing the peace treaty without a sound of applause, just as it had received the fiery speeches against such action in absolute silence.

Analysis of the vote of 237 to 138 in favor of accepting the treaty seems to show that the bulk of the Democrats went over at the last minute to the side of those who advocated the signing, with the understanding that the terms would be signed on condition that former Emperor William would not be delivered to the Allies and that German citizens, such as Field Marshal von Hindenburg and General Ludendorff, would not be extradited.

ALLIES REFUSE EXTENSION PLEA

Flatly Reject Foe's Request for 48 Hours More to Consider Peace Terms.

TIME TO TALK IS PAST

Clemenceau, for Council of Three, Informs German Premier No Qualifications of Reservation in Signing of Treaty Can Be Made.

Paris, June 24.—The German government at Weimar has formally communicated its willingness to sign the peace terms unconditionally, it is announced by the French foreign office.

The German note of acceptance, it is said, is couched in such language that it maintains the German position that the peace conditions are "a peace of violence."

Paris, June 24.—The German request for a 48-hour extension of the time limit for acceptance of the peace treaty was promptly refused by the Allies.

Previously the Allies had received a note from Gustav Adolf Bauer, the new German chancellor, saying Germany would sign the treaty, because she is forced to do so, making certain reservations.

To this note the Allies replied that the time for discussion had passed and that Germany must accept the terms without qualifications or reservation.

Bauer declines responsibility. Bauer's note, which was directed to Premier Georges Clemenceau, as chairman of the Allied Peace commission, declined responsibility for what might happen in Poland and "what is bound to happen when the impossibility of carrying out the conditions comes up."

It added, however, that Germany will sign "as she is imposed by force." The note refused to admit that Germany was the author of the war, declared she would not accept the article committing her to give up persons charged with war crimes and requested that the treaty be re-examined within two years.

"Time for Discussion Past."

Clemenceau replied: "There remain less than 24 hours. The Allies are constrained to say the time for discussion has passed. Germany must accept the terms without qualification or reservation. We shall require from the representatives from Germany an unequivocal decision of their purpose to sign and accept, or not, the whole of the final treaty. Germany is responsible for the every stipulation after her signature."

BIG GUNS BOOM AT PARIS

People Celebrate German Acceptance of Peace Terms.

Paris, June 24.—When it became known officially here that the Germans had agreed to sign the peace treaty, guns began to boom from the forts around Paris. At 6 p. m. the big siren on the roof of the Hotel Astoria, British headquarters, near the center of the city, began to shriek and its piercing notes were heard for half an hour by the excited crowds in the Champs Elysees, where there were great rejoicings.

SEPARATE TRIALS REFUSED

A. C. Townley and J. Gilbert Must Face Jury Together.

Jackson, Minn., June 24.—Motion for separate trials was denied by Judge E. C. Dean in the case of A. C. Townley, president of the National Nonpartisan league, and Joseph Gilbert, business manager, charged with conspiracy to violate the state disloyalty law.

Counsel for Townley argued that Gilbert's unpopularity in this section would prejudice his own case. Judge Dean held that the indictment brought both cases into close relation and refused the motion.

INDUSTRIAL UNREST GROWS

NEW GRAY SILK SPORT SUIT

This is a gray silk sport suit of unusual quality. The material has a high sheen and is smartly made. Very plain is the front of the coat, and the back smartly gathered, sports two sashes from the collar, with black wool tassels. The skirt is snug, conforming with the season's latest models.

Novelty From Paris.

A genuine Paris novelty takes the form of a dainty evening frock in "chemise" form, of ivory white organdie muslin, embroidered with washing silver threads and worn over a fourreau of silver net. The extreme simplicity of the little dress lends it a most desirable cachet. Unfortunately this "simplicity" cannot be called inexpensive.

Keeps Doorknob Screws Tight.
Doorknob screws often work out and let the knob come off. This may be prevented by removing loose screws, covering them with glue and screwing them back into place.

Britain, whose income has been estimated at $5 a minute, has frequently been coupled with that of well-known actresses and other women. The duchess is a sister-in-law of the former Lady Randolph Churchill, who was Jenny Jerome of New York.

GERMAN ARMY WAS SOUNDLY WHIPPED

STATEMENT OF HUN OFFICIALS TO THE CONTRARY ARE LIES, AND THEY KNOW IT.

SAVED ONLY BY ARMISTICE

Reserves Gone and Ammunition Running Short, the Enemy Was About to Be Driven Across His Borders When Fighting Ceased.

By EDWARD B. CLARK.

Washington.—An American correspondent, Frank H. Simonds, cabling from Paris, says: "German public men are making desperate efforts, with certain success in some directions, to give the impression that the German surrender last November was due solely to the principles of the fourteen points."

This simply means that the German officials are trying to make their people believe their army and their navy were undefeated last November, and that when surrender came it was not forced but voluntary, because of a desire to end the war in behalf of all peoples.

American army officers, some of whom are in Washington, and scores of them still in France, know that this German contention is a lie, that the German authorities know that it is a lie, and that the people of Germany ought to be made to know that it is a lie.

One of the worst features of this attempt on the part of the German high command is to make it appear that their armies were not in a bad way last November is that thousands of Americans seem to think the same thing. They are just as badly informed on the subject as are many of the German people. Even in this capital of the United States there are legislators who seem to think that the German army was not on its last legs on the day that the armistice went into effect in the late fall of last year.

What All Americans Should Know.

It ought to do some good to let all Americans know that while Germany could have fought for a while longer, she could have fought nothing but a defensive battle on a line that would have crumbled quickly and laid open her country to the invading forces.

Your correspondent was north of the Argonne forest at the headquarters of an American major general at the time that the armistice was signed. The entire situation as regards the German army was thoroughly understood by high commanding Americans, and it was a very mentally dense doughboy who did not know for himself just how things stood with the foe that was confronting him from Metz to Belgium.

It is true that the Germans managed to keep their battle line intact; that is, they had troops confronting every unit of the allied forces, but they had no reserves worthy of the name, and while their supply of ammunition was sufficient for some weeks' fighting, the end of the supply was in sight.

All these things were known to the American commanders. The intelligence service of the armies of the allies was of the best. Information was obtained from captured prisoners, from raids on German trenches, from airplane observation and by other means.

The Germans had a railroad line and a high road running from Metz in Lorraine, which was one of their great military strengths, to the army lines back of Verdun.

The Americans cut off the St. Mihiel salient and drove the Germans back north of Hatton-Chatel, where the enemy established a new line. North of the Argonne the enemy was driven back to Sedan, which fell some days prior to November 11.

The railroads and highways from Metz to the west were under American artillery fire. In a few days at the most the German armies from north of Sedan to Metz could have been supplied only in a roundabout way, a way so difficult that it virtually was impossible to use it adequately.

There was nothing left for the German army except retreat, which meant soon the isolation of Metz, the fall of that stronghold, and a precipitate retreat of the Germans into their own territory. There was no other way out of it.

The German army of November 11 had been licked out of its boots. Its commanding officers knew it. They saw the inevitable facing them and hastily they took advantage of the opportunity to enter into an armistice.

It has been regretted at times by Americans, and by the French and British, too, for that matter, that a punitive policy could not have been carried out, the Germans driven back across the Rhine, and some of their cities subjected to the treatment to which the foe had subjected the French and Belgian cities.

However, when a foe surrenders it is impossible to hit him. A cur lying down and begging is not to be subjected to kicks. The supine way in which the foe agreed to every term of the armistice, the abject surrender of his ships without a fight, the turning over of thousands of heavy guns, the surrender of virtually all his aircraft and his retreat to within his own borders show how complete was the victory of the allies.

HELP FOR FERGUS FALLS

Fergus Falls sent its citizens into Northern Minnesota and its motor corps, home guard and other volunteers beat back the forest fires and indirectly saved Brainerd and other outlying districts.

Brainerd knows Fergus Falls, its people. Brainerd should not wait to be asked for aid. True, proffers have been made by Brainerd to supply nurses, doctors, etc., as offered through the medium of the Chamber of Commerce.

Five hundred thousand dollars is needed for rebuilding Fergus Falls. Help was rushed into Fergus Falls from St. Cloud two hours after the disaster struck the doomed city. More aid came from St. Paul, from Staples.

If Brainerd people wish to contribute to a fund to be given worthy Fergus Falls people, the Brainerd Dispatch will be glad to receive same and publish in full each contributor and transmit the money to the proper authorities at Fergus Falls.

Senator Fall Introduces Amendment to Army Bill.

Washington, June 24.—War with Germany and Austria would be declared at an end by an amendment to the army appropriation bill, introduced by Senator Fall, Republican, of New Mexico, with a view to removing from congress any blame for continuing war conditions pending ratification of the peace treaty.

In addition, the amendment would direct the president to order the immediate return to the United States of all military and naval forces abroad in connection with the war.

John Hoving, Uncle of Miss Elsie Carlson, Stood near N. P. Depot at Fergus Falls

AS THE STRUCTURE COLLAPSED

Man Near Hoving Instantly Killed by Flying Debris—Homes Wrecked by Twister

A letter received in Brainerd by Miss Elsie Carlson relates the experience of her uncle, John Hoving, in the Fergus Falls cyclone. Mr. Hoving is roadmaster of the Fergus Falls branch of the Northern Pacific railway and was standing at the N. P. depot when the funnel shaped cloud tagged it and the structure collapsed. Hoving escaped uninjured, but a man near him was struck by flying debris and instantly killed. Hoving's home on Vernon avenue was wrecked. All Vernon avenue, he wrote, is a scene of desolation. Five hundred homes were razed in Fergus Falls by the cyclone.

son of Judge C. W. Stanton of Bemidji was at Fergus Falls at the time of the cyclone and the judge, holding court in Brainerd, made efforts through the Red Cross to locate him.

Mrs. L. J. Storstad had a sister, Mrs. Clara Krokstad, living in Fergus Falls near the N. P. depot which was destroyed. She writes that they escaped with their lives, but he house was badly damaged.

F. E. Warren, whose wife lives in Fergus Falls, reports that she is uninjured, although her home was badly damaged. The house was located at 113 Washington Ave., E., near the N. P. depot.

Dr. K. H. Hoorn, Brainerd dentist, has an uncle C. L. Hoorn and a number of cousins living in Fergus Falls and has not been able to get word from them.

Piece of Ancient Meteor.

Meteorites of indicated great age are conspicuous by their absence from museum collections, and it is suggested that such specimens may disintegrate and disappear from the rocks within a relatively short time after falling. The British museum, however, has lately acquired a slice of somewhat less than a pound from a meteorite iron that is believed to represent an ancient fall. The slice is from one of two similar masses that were found in January, 1905, within a few miles of Dawson, Klondike, and that from their position deep in the oldest gravels of the district are thought to have rested there since the Pliocene age or before. From his study of the original specimens in the Museum of the Geological Survey at Ottawa, R. A. A. Johnson concluded that they are part of a single meteoric shower of Tertiary time.

SENATE TO RATIFY TREATY AND LEAGUE

BELIEF IS IT WILL DO THIS, HOWEVER, WITH SERIES OF RESERVATIONS FOR FUTURE.

ALLIES WOULD NOT OBJECT

England and France Want United States in the League of Nations as Next Best Thing to an Actual Alliance.

By EDWARD B. CLARK.

Washington.—Men who are accounted keen observers of legislative situations seem to believe today that the peace treaty and the league covenant will be sanctioned by the United States senate in the form that they are written, but that there will be a series of written reservations passed by the senators which will concern themselves with the attitude of the United States in the future towards certain provisions of the document or documents.

Of course it cannot yet be definitely determined whether this view of the situation is a correct one, but it is a fact that men who are opposed to the covenant as it stands and men who are in favor of it agree in effect that the outcome is to be as above written.

What the reservations will be in their entirety cannot be told, but it is known that in part they will concern themselves with immigration questions, with the Monroe doctrine, and probably with some things connected with rights of withdrawal from the league and with suggestions concerning the armed part which the United States is expected to bear in case of embroglios.

I have talked with men who are in touch with the foreign feeling on such an outcome as that outlined above. It seems that the British and the French are perfectly willing to allow the United States to make its reservations. Reservations or no reservations, the covenant will go into effect and the future, so far as the senate's action is concerned, will be allowed to take care of itself, the belief of the foreigners apparently being that nothing which the senate shall insist upon in separate document will affect the smoothness of the running of the world's affairs.

Bunau Varilla Favors League. Bunau Varilla, the great French engineer who directed the work on the isthmus of Panama when the French company had it in charge, is in Washington. This Frenchman lost a leg at Souilly, not far from Verdun, about two years ago. He was the engineer in charge of providing the water supply for the French armies and it was some job. A Boche airplane dropped a bomb near the general's headquarters and he was maimed, but notwithstanding the number of his years he recovered, later to return to the front and still later to journey to the United States.

Bunau Varilla is in favor of a League of Nations. So it is understood are most other Frenchmen of high official standing. This also is true of the British of like estate. One learns one thing, however, in Washington through direct and indirect touch with visiting foreigners, and the facts may just as well be faced. It is not to be supposed that the French and British are in love with the League of Nations so much because they believe it will solve all the war problems of the universe, or that it will prevent for all time territorial and racial bickerings. They want the League of Nations mainly because the United States will be a party to it, and France and England, barring the possibility of an actual alliance with the United States, feel that the league is the next best thing.

Why They Want America.

Some of the foreigners cannot understand why a good many citizens of the United States are not willing to agree out and out to go to the defense of France in case she is attacked wantonly by Germans. As the Frenchman and the British view it, there is a strong probability in the future of a quarter of a century or so, of an eastern alliance, despite the League of Nations, which will threaten the west, and the United States is regarded at a part of the west.

As the foreigners look into the future they see France as she was in 1914, alone on the continent save for Belgium, exposed to the fury of the Hun. Looking ahead, they see France menaced again and not only menaced but perhaps confronting the certainty of being overwhelmed unless the United States with Great Britain, which is sure to do so, come to her aid.

It is difficult to find any foreigner of place now in Washington who does not believe implicitly that Prussia, unless she becomes a republic in a real sense, will work as she has worked in the past, subtly, to find a means to dominate the future. Few people, except some Americans with their idealism, are there in Washington who are not firmly convinced that Prussia will continue to be the same old Prussia unless perchance democracy makes itself felt and a two-party Republican government be formed in the land of the Hohenzollerns with all the Hohenzollern influence removed from its borders.

HISTORY NOT MERE RECORD

Writer, to Set It Down Successfully, Must Use His Constructive Imagination.

There is no commoner cause of historical misjudgment than the tendency to read the events of the past too exclusively in the light of the present, and so twist the cold and unconscious record into the training service of controversial politics. And yet history is inevitably to a great extent a work of the imagination. No good historian is content merely to repeat the record of the past. He has to find more in it than it actually says. He cannot understand without the use of his constructive imagination, and he cannot imagine effectively without the use of his experience. I believe it is one of the marks of a great historian to see both present and past, as it were, with the same unclouded eye, to realize the past story as if it were now proceeding before him, and envisage the present much in the same perspective as it will bear when it is as one chapter, or so many pages, in the great volume of the past.

We know in Gibbon's case how much the historian of the Roman empire learnt from the captain of the Hampshire grenadiers. And it would surely be folly to tell a man who had lived through the French or Russian revolution to forget his own experience when he came to treat of similar events in history—Gilbert Murray.

FAT WOOD MAKES HIT IN MOVIES

Plays Opposite to Charlie Chaplin in "Sunnyside," a Fat Man Gifted with Humor

Applause Greeted Every Entrance of Brainerd's Native Son, Many Attend Show Twice

All Brainerd turned out to attend the first four performances of Tom (Fat) Wood of Brainerd and Charlie Chaplin in "Sunnyside," first movie film in which a Minnesota recruit played opposite the inimitable Chaplin.

Tom Wood, born and raised in Brainerd, has gained celebrity as being the first backstop of that other distinguished Brainerd boy, Joe Bullet Leslie Bush, world's series pitcher of Philadelphia and Boston. Fat Wood weighs 500 pounds and is a gifted singer, comedian, trap drummer, advertising and publicity man and has now hopped to added distinction as making a hit first jump at the movies.

Every entrance of Fat in the calumnious happenings woven about Chaplin as the central figure was greeted with loud applause. The Park theatre will run "Sunnyside" four days with double doses of matinees and that beats any record by any other film appearing in Brainerd, backing off the boards "The Birth of a Nation."

Fat Wood will appear Tuesday and Wednesday at the Park theatre with matinees and evening performances as advertised.

At the Park Soon

Annette Kellerman, the shapely "Queen of the Sea," is the aquatic star at the Park theatre soon.

Those who remember her famous picture, "A Daughter of the Gods," are promised in this latest William Fox submarine fairy story even more sensational swimming and high-diving stunts, combined with real dramatic situations. The art of condensation has been applied to this feature picture so that thrill follows thrill in constant crescendo, until Miss Kellerman attains a hair-raising climax with her dive of 85 feet from a high wire into the breakers below.

This comes as a logical part of the story, where the heroine is escaping from a lofty tower by walking a wire cable across a chasm, when the villain cuts the slender strand, and at the same time the tower is blown up. It is a thrill worth going miles to see, whereas you only have to go to the Park theatre.

Woman Thinks She Can't Talk Enough

"I had gall stones for 14 years and suffered severely from gas, colic and indigestion. Doctors wanted me to go to the hospital, but I took Mayr's Wonderful Remedy instead, and am now feeling fine and better than I ever did. I can't talk enough about this remedy." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. RY. TIME TABLE CHANGES JUNE 22

Change of Train Time on Lake Superior and St. Paul Divisions of Northern Pacific

PUBLIC WAS NOT ADVISED

In Many Cases the Depot Employees and Trainmen were Not So Advised until at Brainerd

Under the United States Railroad Administration, the Northern Pacific Railway inaugurated changes in time tables of passenger trains on the Lake Superior and St. Paul divisions of which the public was not advised, the changes taking effect on Sunday, June 22.

The first change occurred when the Duluth passenger came in at 12:35 a. m., new night time, and left at 12:40 a. m. new time. This night train formerly left at 1:10 a. m. In some cases depot employees were not aware of this change of time.

Early Monday further changes occurred on the St. Paul division. It was especially aggravating to Brainerd people and travelmen to go to the depot Monday afternoon expecting to catch the 12:50 p. m. for St. Paul and find it had left the station at 12:30 p. m.

An early inquiry at the freight depot Monday elicited the reply that they had no folders and did not know what changes were in effect. At length the St. Paul division changes of the Northern Pacific were secured from the trainmaster of the Minnesota & International railway, and published gratis by the Dispatch Monday evening for the benefit of the traveling public.

TO TAKE EFFECT TUESDAY, JULY 1

The new schedule as being signed up by merchants of the city and confirming the hours as set forth by the retail clerks union, is to take effect Tuesday, July 1.

Stores will close as usual at 6 p. m. The changes occur in the hours Saturday and pay day nights when stores will close at 8 p. m. instead of 9 p. m.

No stores will keep open the nights before-holidays, as has been done in the past.

GAS COMPANY EXTENDING MAINS

The Brainerd Gas & Electric Co. is putting in a gas main extension in Northeast Brainerd. Crews are laying four blocks from Oak to Rosabel on First street near the school. Twelve patrons have signified their intention of taking gas and more will soon be added. There are 25 residences in the area covered by the extension. Pipe laying will soon be finished and on Wednesday the gas crew starts work putting in fittings.

AMERICAN SOLDIERS' GRAVES KEEP GREEN

In a letter received by Mr. and Mrs. Archie Purdy from their son, Private Leslie Purdy in France, the latter reports that graves of American soldiers are kept green by the French soldiers, each of whom has taken it up in a spirit of love and fraternity to keep up the grave of a fallen American comrade. Private Purdy said flowers bloomed on the graves and the cemeteries were given as much loving attention as anywhere in America.

Brainerd Knights of Columbus Strike Mud Between Grand Rapids and Remer

A Brainerd delegation of Knights of Columbus attended the initiation at Hibbing. Roads were good on the way up, but trouble arose was encountered on the way home in the stretch of 39 miles between Grand Rapids and Remer. It took six hours to get through the assorted gumbo, mud and sticky clay.

In the party were District Deputy J. J. Nolan, A. B. Willing, P. J. Oberst, John Hurley, M. McKenna, Joseph Mraz, William Dougherty, Leo Riffenrath, Gover Biles and they all took turns pushing the two cars to their destination.

The K. C.'s claim they have done their share lifting Minnesota cars out of the mud. James Graham and J. V. Otis, with Scotch caniness, seemed to sense the shape of roads, left their cars home and traveled to Hibbing via Duluth by train. A class of eighty-nine was initiated.

EYE WITNESS OF BIG TORNADO

Charles E. Benson, Indian Agent, in the Thick of the Havoc Wrought at Fergus Falls

HE AIDED IN THE RESCUE WORK

Twister Blew 15 Minutes One Direction, Lull Followed and It Reversed Itself

Charles E. Benson, a special officer of the Indian department operating in Brainerd and previously on the Mesaba, was in the thick of the Fergus Falls cyclone Sunday evening.

He was a witness at the federal term of court and was staying at the Kaddatz hotel about three blocks from the Grand hotel. He was in his room in the annex, third floor, facing the river. For an hour and a half he and companions had heard the loud rumbling of the storm. The air grew darker, rain fell and he and two companions had just closed two windows when a plank blew into the room.

They ducked debris and looked out and saw showers of planks, tin cans, sections of roofs skimming by like leaves on an October gale. The Kaddatz hotel, a brick structure, wobbled about uneasily in the gale. Doors in the hall blew in and stuff from outside circulated in. Then there was a lull.

Benson and the men in his room went downstairs. The first lull lasted about 15 minutes. They went to the hotel lobby and narrowly missed getting cut up just as the whole glass front blew in.

The storm then reversed itself and for 15 minutes the tornado blew the opposite direction, and the whole show of roofs, planks, tin cans, debris flying and eddying about was repeated. The roof of the hotel was sprung and leaked. Three women were blown into the hotel and given assistance. At the end of the second storm, rain fell in torrents and water stood up to one's knees in the streets. Benson went to the Grand hotel. He saw a man sitting thirty feet from the sidewalk with a section of stairway on his neck. He was rescued. They went to different homes and pulled out wounded and dying.

At the Northern Pacific depot the building was gone, completely wiped out. One half of the platform remained. They picked up one dead man there. Another dead man, believed to be a traveling man was found at the freight depot near by. Many houses were blown down in the vicinity of the N. P. depot, and they took out many injured people.

He saw two bridges down east of the court house. Half of the court house, a brick structure, had been swept away. Half of the county jail was gone, roof and top floor being missing. Trees near by had been uprooted. There were a number of federal and state prisoners in jail and they escaped injury.

At the postoffice windows were smashed and it rained into the building and into the federal court room upstairs and damaged records and papers.

Benson said he saw Judge Stanton's son of Bemidji who served on the federal jury and had been discharged Saturday evening, taking the early Sunday morning train to Minneapolis, thus escaping any cyclone danger.

In the country hundreds of barns were smashed or moved about. At a large garage the big doors were blown in with one gust and an empty touring car jerked out on the rebound. The library had all its windows blown in. Its tile roof was peppered with holes as though a battalion of machine guns had let loose on it. The biggest church in town was cut in two. Its iron braces so heavy eight men could not lift them, were blown blocks away.

A lake in the vicinity of Fergus Falls was so littered with tables, blankets, sections of roofs, boards, etc., that the water was not visible.

After the big crash of the twister one heard people yelling everywhere. A soldier was dug up who had been imprisoned under three layers of floors. A two inch gas pipe sustained the tons of debris half a foot overhead of him and rescuers saved through the floors and got him out unscathed.

The Grand hotel was a three story brick hotel and offered no obstacle to the tornado which leveled it.

MONTHLY MEETING CHAMBER COMMERCE

Wednesday Evening June 24th Home Coming for Soldier Boys is Being Planned

THE 151ST ARTILLERY BAND

This Famous Band, Writes Secretary Lincoln, has been Written to For Some Time

(By the Secretary)

The regular monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce will be held Wednesday evening, June 24 at 8 p. m. sharp and matters of importance to the Chamber and the community in general are to come up. Correspondence with the management of the famous 151st Artillery band, "The Pride of the Rainbow Division" as it is best known, has been carried on for some time with the hope of being able to secure this splendid organization for this city.

Home Coming Plan

A home coming for the boys in khaki, with this crack band as the drawing feature, is strongly urged. Other cities all over the country are putting on these celebrations in honor of the boys. Thus far, Brainerd has been in-active in this respect, but the hope is entertained that the citizens of this city and county will get together and put over something worth while, something to be proud of and that will serve as a fitting victory celebration in honor of the boys.

On the Calendar

Two conventions are scheduled for July (also an auto run to this city, under the direction of the Minnesota Automobile Association. Seventy-five cars are actually coming on this trip. A little rain will not turn them back. They are seasoned tourists and know what it means to schedule a tour, have cities make ready for them and be disappointed in their not coming. They will be here July 25th; make this city their night control, pay their own bills, join Brainerd in a "live-wire" night of good fellowship and cheer. This must be prepared for, it will be.

Conventions

The State Veterinarians will convene here July 9-10 and an interesting program has been prepared. The local committee will care for their entertainment and the Chamber of Commerce rooms will be available for their meetings.

The Sons of Norway convene here July 11-12 and this will bring a number of prominent Scandinavians to Brainerd. Their committee has also arranged for the Chamber of Commerce rooms and with the local committee to assist in the plans.

July will be a lively month, work is ahead, for the Chamber and the citizenship it represents and with hearty co-operation, the burden will be light on individuals.

Open Meeting Wednesday

The Chamber meeting tomorrow night is open not only to members but to every citizen interested in either a home-coming for the boys with the 151st Field Artillery band as the feature, the entertainment of the visitors who come for the conventions mentioned or for anything in the mind of active men and women they think should be done for Brainerd and in which they are willing to assist.

No Excuses

There can be no excuses. Every member of the advisory board has been notified of this Chamber meeting. This news story should put it up to a majority of our members and the phone will be used freely to send out the word. Let wide-awake citizens take notice and be present; it's a duty and should be a pleasure.

N. M. D. A. MEETING BEST EVER HELD

Historical Pageant Proved a Great Entertainment Feature and Will Soon be Exhibited

THE RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED

Meetings Held in Large Armory at Cass Lake—Local Committees Did Work Well

"One of the best summer conventions in the history of the Northern Minnesota Development Association," is the verdict of Fred T. Lincoln, secretary, who returned Sunday night after a hard week's work at Cass Lake, where the convention was held on June 20-21.

The historical pageant proved a big success as an entertainment feature for the crowds present and the moving picture artist who took the film advised the committee that he expected a "million-dollar picture" when they were developed. This film will be the property of the Northern Minnesota Development Association, the Cass Lake Commercial Club, Minnesota Scenic Highway association and Bemidji Commercial club, as these organizations made up the fund of $500.00 necessary to produce it.

It will be ready for circulation within a week or ten days and will be shipped to Brainerd, where it will be first shown under the auspices of the Brainerd Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Lincoln will have charge of placing this film among Northern Minnesota cities interested in it on a fifty-fifty basis, the receipts to go to the four organizations mentioned and it will then be placed in the big circuit covered by the filming company that made it.

Important Business

Strong resolutions endorsing the deep water ways connection with the ocean, fathered by C. J. Craig of Duluth, the Babcock Highway legislation, legislation forcing the seeding of undeveloped cut-over lands in the fire district burned over on October 12, 1918, maximum fire protection, elaborate publicity of the new seed potato certification law and other important matters were embodied in resolutions unanimously endorsed by the convention.

A conservative estimate of the number of visitors at the convention is put at two thousand people, outside of Cass Lake proper and immediate vicinity. There were at least forty-five hundred people in the city during the day of the pageant.

The meetings were held at the large armory at Cass Lake and were well attended. Local committees did their work systematically and gave splendid co-operation with the Northern Minnesota Development Association committee in making this convention a success.

General satisfaction was expressed on the part of Cass Lake people at the results and there was not a dull moment during the two days of the big gathering. Many who attended the convention took advantage of the fine fishing opportunities afforded there and a number stayed over until Monday morning.

Through the Storm

President R. R. Wise and Mrs. Wise, Fred T. Lincoln, Mrs. Lincoln and their two children and the chauffeur returned Sunday night by auto from Cass Lake. They came by the way of Park Rapids, Wadena, Staples and Pillager and encountered a number of thunder storms during the day. They left Wadena at about 7 p. m. and were not far at that time from the scene of the storm at Fergus Falls but knew nothing of it until next morning, although the sky bore signs of severe storms in that locality as they came through.

Fall Convention

The fall convention of the Northern Minnesota Development Association is to be held at Duluth on November 12th and 13th and this was

The Science of Being Useful

Business is the state of being busy.

American business is the entire American people in the business of providing itself with a living.

Only through the usefulness of all can everything be done which must be done, and everyone rewarded who does it.

Swift & Company, with other great American businesses, interprets its mission as more than the mere Science of Making Money.

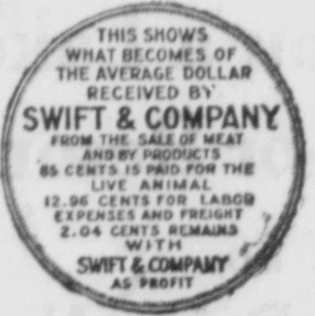

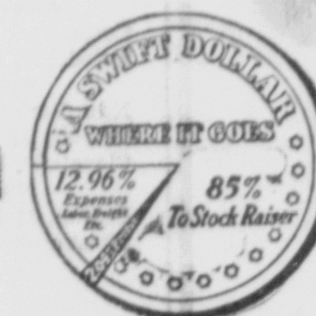

It realizes the surest way to make money is to prove its usefulness; that the more useful a business is the more successful it must be because it is a greater benefit to mankind.

Today's success of Swift & Company is a measure of the quantity and quality of its usefulness—of the number of people it helps, and the number of ways and the degrees in which it benefits them.

given a big boost by the delegates from that city who attended the convention.

A. B. Hostetter district agricultural agent, who has been recovering from serious injuries received in the forest fires of last October, was able to be at the convention and meet many old friends. Mr. Hostetter predicted that the fall convention at Duluth will be a big success and will be largely attended. He took occasion to compliment the officers of the N. M. D. A. for the manner in which these conventions are conducted and the organization as a whole for the practical work it is accomplishing.

POISON LIKE UNTO Vemon of Snakes

Professor H. Strauss, M. D., of the Royal Charity Hospital, says, "The cause for an attack of gout, rheumatism, umbago, is supplied by the increase of uric acid in the blood serum, the result of various causes, the most frequent of which is renal. Before an attack, one suffers sometimes from headache, neuralgia, twinges of pain here and there."

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead, when the back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; when you suffer with lumbago, or dizziness, nervous spells, cold stomach; or you have rheumatic pains or lumbago, gout, sciatica when the weather is bad, do not neglect the warning, but try simple means. Take six or eight glasses of water during the day, then obtain at your nearest drug store 'An-uric' (anti-uric acid).

This is the discovery of Dr. Pierce of the Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y. "An-uric" is an antidote for this uric acid poisoning and dissolves uric acid in the body much as hot coffee dissolves sugar. "Anuric" will penetrate into the joints and muscles, and dissolve the poisonous accumulations. It will stamp out toxins. Send 10 cents to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial package.

ALL READY FOR SIGNING

Setting for Ceremony at Versailles Is Completed.

Famous Gallery of Mirrors Has Received Its Final Furnishings for Historical Occasion.

Paris, June 24.—The French foreign office stated it would be impossible to complete all arrangements for formal signing of the peace treaty before Wednesday.

Versailles, June 24.—Plans are nearly completed for signing the treaty at Versailles. Orders have been issued to have everything in readiness, although the ceremony may not take place before Thursday.

The famous Gallery of Mirrors has received its final furnishings. The carpets have been laid and the ornamental table with its eighteenth century gilt and bronze decorations has been placed in position near where the plenipotentiaries will be seated.

There will be room for 400 invited persons. They will be given places in the left wing of the Hall of Mirrors, while the right wing will be occupied by about the same number of press representatives. Sixty seats have been allotted to the French press.

The program of arrangements, as far as they have been settled, were submitted to Premier Clemenceau. The court of honor has been cleared of captured guns. Three regiments of infantry and five of cavalry will be on duty. Republican guards in gala uniform will be stationed on the grand staircase by which the plenipotentiaries enter the hall.

According to the Havas agency diplomatic relations with Germany will not be resumed immediately on signing of the treaty, but only after its ratification. This also applies to the admission of German subjects into France.

Fronting M. Clemenceau's presidential chair will be placed a table on which the diplomatic instruments will be laid. It will be to this table that each representative is called in alphabetical order to sign his name to the treaty and affix his government seal. Although there are 100 delegates, the ceremony is expected to take at least 90 minutes.

WHO DOES the BUYING FOR YOUR FAMILY?

There is someone in your family who has a big responsibility.

Food to buy for the table; clothes for the children and grown-ups; new household utensils, linen, furniture, books and all the hundred and one little things for which the family income is spent.

In most families, one person does the bulk of the buying. And it is that person's job to see that the money is well spent—that you all get full value for every cent that goes out.

The success of a family depends on wise buying just as the success of a business does.

Wise buying means intelligent buying. It is necessary to have knowledge of goods and stores.

The best way to get this knowledge is by reading advertisements. They tell you what is new and good. They tell you where and when to buy to advantage.

Not only the person who does the buying but every member of the family should read advertisements. It is the duty of all the others to help the one who does the buying by pointing out advertisements of new goods and giving all the information possible as to tastes and styles and values.

Advertisements are published for your benefit. Make use of them by reading them.
